

This sets out the terms and conditions for Photo | Frome festival of photography 2024. Please read these terms carefully.

1. Copyright: By submitting your work to our festival, we assume that you are confirming that you are the sole owner of the copyright of the images you are submitting. You confirm that the work you submit does not violate any copyright, trademark, privacy, or other proprietary rights of any third party. You indemnify Photo | Frome against any third-party claims or disputes related to the work submitted.
2. Ownership: You retain copyright of your work, and we will not claim ownership or copyright of your work.
3. Work: this includes but is not limited to photographs (physical and digital uploads), installations, profiles, project descriptions, biographies, books, zines, digital files, blog posts, and written descriptions of work.
4. License: Unless specifically agreed otherwise in writing with the copyright owner, Photo | Frome assumes that the organisers of our physical exhibitions, symposiums, talks, workshops, websites, social media, printed documentation, and other related activities have been granted a non-exclusive licence to use submitted items as they judge appropriate in the execution of Photo | Frome's programmes. This includes a non-exclusive licence to promote those activities publicly on, e.g., social media, websites, printed programme materials, and other promotional collateral. Photo | Frome may crop work to fit media as appropriate.
5. Submission of work: This will be agreed directly with the artists, for physical and digital work. Submission requirements for contests and other open activities will be included in entry forms. These often use automated, third-party software which is not always directly under Photo | Frome's control and for which we cannot take liability.
6. Display: Your work will be displayed during the exhibition for public viewing. The work will not be sold, distributed, or used for commercial purposes other than the promotion of the festival without mutual agreement.
7. Written submissions: We occasionally accept written articles for use on our website, blog, social media, or other printed materials. Subject matter should be related to our core topics. Articles submitted will not be altered without mutual agreement, except for formatting, and the author retains full copyright. We do not compensate for such guest materials. We will include links to your websites and /or social media.
8. Liability: While we take every precaution to ensure the safety and security of the prints, we cannot be held responsible for any loss, damage, theft, or destruction of the prints. We will insure your work at agreed replacement value for the duration of the festival.
9. Usage: You grant us permission to use images you provide in promotional materials related to the exhibition and the festival, including online and print media. In press materials, we will always credit you as the photographer although we cannot guarantee third party media outlets will use this credit.
10. Withdrawal: If you wish to withdraw your work from the exhibition, please notify us in writing with 7 days' notice to our email address info@photofrome.org
11. Disclaimer: In all cases, you agree that the work exhibited represents your views and not necessarily those of Photo | Frome or its founders.
12. Indemnity: Whilst we endeavour to ensure that all exhibitions, talks, workshops, and portfolio reviews will take place as planned and advertised, sometimes things are out of our control. We will endeavour to pre-inform about any such changes. However, Photo | Frome can take no liability for such changes or cancellations impacting, e.g., personal travel costs.
13. Jurisdiction: These terms and conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England where the Photography Festival is held. Any disputes arising under or in connection with these terms shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that country.

By submitting your work to our festival and other events, we assume that you agree to these terms and conditions, unless notified otherwise in writing. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us before submitting your work info@photofrome.org Thank you for participating in the Photo | Frome festival of photography 2024.
